Landon Brown
2011
Leaders of Tomorrow Award
Grade 7-9

This young man was chosen for his sincere dedication to his various sports teams, his musical endeavors all while maintaining his high academic standing.

Landon is described as a gracious sportsman, no matter the outcome of the games. He is also willing to help out with set up and clean up and never hesitates to coach and mentor younger players. His constructive attitude is apparent and it is noted that, “his respectful and positive nature encourages his peers to act that way too”.

Landon also excels in music, playing several instruments and singing in the student choir. He often volunteers his talents at the Sunshine Lodge, his church and at school functions.

Landon works hard to excel in all that he does and has already become a respected role model in the community.

Shelby Augart
2011
Leaders of Tomorrow Award
Grade 10-12

Our winner in this category exhibits exceptionalism in her academics, volunteerism and musical abilities.

In the community, Shelby has volunteered at the Salvation Army, the Terry Fox Run and with the Downtown Merchants. It was said that she has, “a willingness to help...and an openness to be of service to her school and community in many capacities”.

Shelby Augart also displays her dedication to her fellow students as she holds the volunteer positions of vice President of Student Council as well as Treasurer of the Graduation Executive Committee. She has dedicated countless hours to school functions and events. In doing so, she inspires others students to give of themselves as she does.

Shelby has tutored students in Math and Science for several years and has personally achieved one of the highest averages in her grade.

Beyond this, Shelby is an accomplished musician and often shares her talents with the residents of Sunshine Lodge. She also mentors and tutors younger musicians.

Her character, dedication and accomplishments are a credit to our community.
